Thanks Sherisa Rajah and Fasken for sharing your advice and leading the conversation on how to deal with Covid-19 in the workplace.

WE CARE: FSACCI Statement

We share wine & expertise...not COVID-19

FSACCI and its members have a collective and a dual-responsibility to limit the risks of exposure to COVID-19 in our business community and South Africans at large AND to mitigate adverse economic effects.

We applaud the proactive preventative measures many of our members have taken. As the FSACCI team, we have also taken up the responsibility and adapted our networking events and workshops to help mitigate these risks.

Now more than ever, we need to collectively lean on the expertise, skills and experiences of our network and assist each other. In doing this we are #StrongerTogether and can ensure that not only are we informed and equipped but that we can continue to grow and conduct our business. We take this crisis as a collective challenge: With you, let's develop alternative ways to connect, promote your business and create a digital platform for info/expertise sharing.

FRENCH NEWS

FSACCI was proud to attend...

In light of International Women's Day, Ms. Sona Dona Perez, Consul General of France in Johannesburg, hosted a cocktail reception. While emphasising our daily responsibility to fight for equality within our society, shared by women and men together, Sona Dona Perez gave the floor to the representatives of five organisations that lead by example through their programmes, expertise and initiatives: MAMAS Alliance, World Bank Group, Fliptin Technologies, Lawyers Against Abuse, and 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day.

I am proud to work for Michelin, a company where women have always been valued for their worth that they bring to the company. As women were honoured around the world on International Women's Day, yesterday we had the opportunity to officially celebrate with the women of Michelin South Africa, such a diverse group of women & joined by Sheila Bhengu who gave a talk encouraging us to unapologetically go for everything!

I cannot forget the women in my life who keep me on my toes, my mom, aunts, cousin sisters, nieces, colleagues & friends! #eachforequal #IWD2020
